Somber faces and silence prevail during tense moments as the crowd anxiously awaits the referee's signal. Suddenly, screams and whistles of delight fill the air as the official lifts his hands to indicate a Cavalier touchdown.

Moods and emotions change with the action, but victory-bound or not, our team receives unyielding support from the Cavalettes and rally squads.

big and little sister party binds friendships

To get away from it all at least once during the year, Girls' League held one of its functions in the woods. A fashion show (shown below) topped the event.

If this is a look at future styles, the advancement of our society is questionable.

Pam Tamura, outgoing Girls' League president, received thanks in the form of a standing ovation from all of the members.

Making a gracious curtsy is Miss Oregon Universe of 1966, Miss Sherie Gerritz.

Senior members of Girls' League Council received a rose for their work in league activities. Displaying their roses and a smile are Rosi Foggia, Vickie Cantwell, Pam Tamura, and Tess Gustafson.

Patti Kato, standing, is 1967-68 Girls' League president. Seated behind her are members of the council who will be helping her in the coming year. Clackamas is a better place because of league work.

One of Vickie Cantwell's responsibilities this year was the presentation of Girl of the Month. Helping her is Henri Magunda, our AFS student. Henri was named honorary Girl of the Month of June.

Because of a speaker's cancellation freshman Charlie Rose led an impromptu hootenany at one of the league meetings.

friendships

Hungry senior Taeko Nagai fills her plate from the wide selection of dishes brought by the different classes. Senior Joan Niklas smiles as Rosi Foggia pins an orchid on her as a symbol of her December Girl of the Month status. There were different programs at each friendship, which included a style show, decoration preparations, and a speaker on survival.

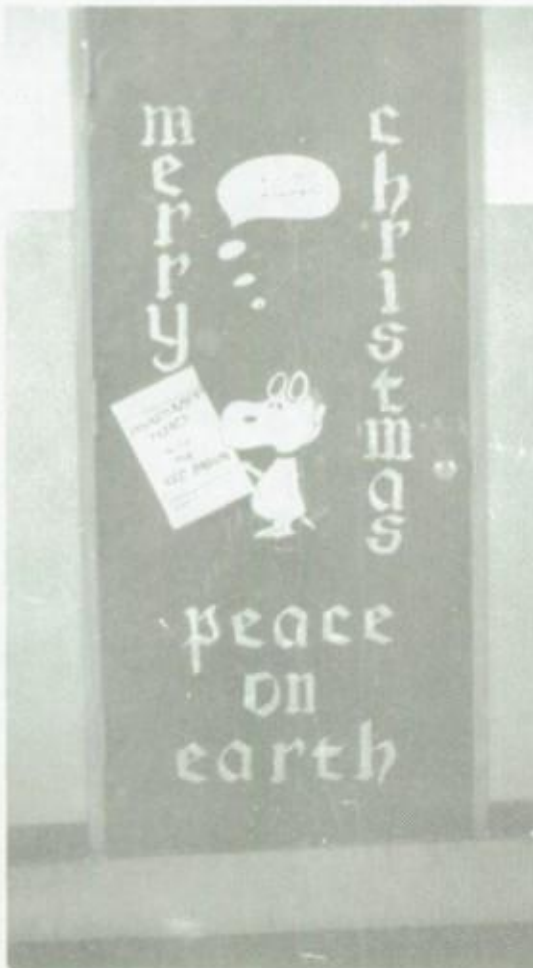

After caroling, junior Cathy Ledgerwood and senior Linda Buckley enjoy donuts and hot cocoa at the December friendship.

christmas at clackamas

Yuletide decorations, supervised by Boys' and Girls' Leagues, included a tree in the cafeteria and the words "Merry Christmas" painted on the windows facing Webster Road.

Doors were bedecked with holiday greetings by each homeroom class. Originality and relevancy to the classroom study were the basis of judgement. Mrs. Little's room, 49-A, won the cake for having the best door design.

"the man in my life"

April's annual Father-Daughter banquet was attended by about 300 Clackamas girls and their fathers. Complimenting the theme, "The Man In My Life," Dr. Drews spoke on woman's place in modern society. Pam Tamura, Girls' League President, welcomed the guests. Clackamas High's own lettermen served the banquet.

kaleidoscope

Blending their voices to a popular folk song are members of the Grapes of Wrath: Vickie Cantwell, Tom Holling, Karen Lattanzi, and Tess Gustafson.

Rosemarie Watson, a freshman, played her accordion for the audience's enjoyment.

Audrey Horton performed a Latin American dance.

Colored lights flashed as the Midnight Horsemen opened the assembly. Nancy Brugato is one of the several girls who modeled clothes from Jeanie's Last Straw.

Clackamas' own combo, "The Vandards," played at the Hello Dance, which is sponsored by the Student Council. Providing the music are Dennis Murphy, Ron Daily, and Charlie Rose. Not in view is Rick Van Dorn on the drums.

hello week helps frosh get with it

Holding the prize for obtaining the most Hello Tag signatures is Tess Gustafson. The tags, sold by Student Council members, give the students a chance to meet new people and make new friends.

An outside assembly held in connection with Fire Prevention Week, marked the announcement of the four princesses who competed for the honor as first annual Miss Flame. During each Queen's full year reign, she represents the community as a symbol of fire prevention and participates in various advertising events sponsored by the fire department. Cecile Hansen, crowned Miss Flame during halftime of the Sunset game, received a large trophy, roses, and a robe. She also reigned at the after-game dance. Firemen conducted a practice firedrill on the football field during the assembly and also performed at halftime of the game.

miss flame starts new tradition

football homecoming '66

Flames leaped high above the Victory Bonfire put on by the senior class under the direction of Dick Ledgerwood. The football team warmed up for the game with the bonfire in the background. Cavalettes made the hoop which is carried by Holly Smith and Pam Tamura.

“mid-winter magic” makes a merry christmas

Clackamas' own Stage Band provided music for the 1967 Christmas Formal.

Queen Margie is about to receive a bouquet of roses from Santa Claus, who is none other than SEP teacher Ed Higgenbotham. Margie's escort for the formal occasion was Neal Butler.

Princess Karen and escort Rick Hansen receive a 'Merry Christmas' from jolly ol' Santa.

at dogpatch

Honored as Mr. and Mrs. Dogpatch this year were Tom Nachand and Elissa Kimmel. Many matrimonial ceremonies were performed at the always popular marriage booth. Although the carrot corsage made by Judy Kate for Bob McLeod didn't win the prize, it does show what can be done with a bit of imagination. Tom Holling and Nancy Brugato, not pictured, took honors for the best corsage.

Doll costumes were worn by Dance Rally at both the assembly and the game. The after-game dance, "The Golden Year of the Cavalier," was sponsored by National Honor Society.

A frosh whoops it up during Spirit Week. The Pep Band, with Neal Butler as student director supported the Dance and Varsity Rally by playing as all pep assemblies.

seniors dominate spirit week

Seniors got the red carpet treatment at their last Football Spirit Week assembly. The poster shown was only one of the many displays which helped the seniors win the class competition.

Art students, under Mr. Boardwell's guidance, work on the pennant which will be presented to the class winning spirit competition. This year the seniors were victorious.

competition spurs most successful can drive

The ambitious juniors were presented with a trophy, received by class president Roger Hohimer, for bringing in more canned food than any other class. Gene Trone was chairman of the drive.

A can-stacking race between the three losing class presidents was held. Bill Ginsbach, above, senior class vice-president, stacked the most cans in the least amount of time. Jeff Hanby, sophomore class president is shown balancing his stack.

Mr. Owens became our Athletic Director this year after serving the school as head football coach from 1960 to 1965.

While in college Mr. Owens played football for three years and was on the conference championship team all three years. He also lettered four times in baseball at OCE and topped off his athletic career there by being named to the All-Conference teams for both football and baseball.

Upon graduating from OCE in 1956, Mr. Owens went to Myrtle Point where he coached football for four years. After majoring in Social Science and minoring in English and PE at OCE, he received his Master's degree at OSU.

Fullback Dave Smith gets good protection as he heads into David Douglas territory. Setting up the protective wall: Oscar Olson (70), Skip Kimes (92), Steve Gaylord (52), and Rusty Law (75).

Running, smashing, falling, winning, losing, trying . . . for what? Why does the athlete push himself until his breath is hard and painful? Why does he keep going when his team is desperately behind? What compelling force drives him on despite the odds, regardless of the consequences? Is it for the cheering onlookers? For the coach? The team? Himself? Only he can answer.

see tough season but

Bill Ginsbach's high school basketball career was highlighted by being named as a member of the 2nd All-Metro team this year. The 381 points he scored this year set an all-time record; his game average was 17.3 points. High scoring plus his exceptional rebounding accounted for his selection to the All-Metro team. He nabbed 210 wayward shots off the boards for a game average of 9.6--the team high. Bill was a co-captain.

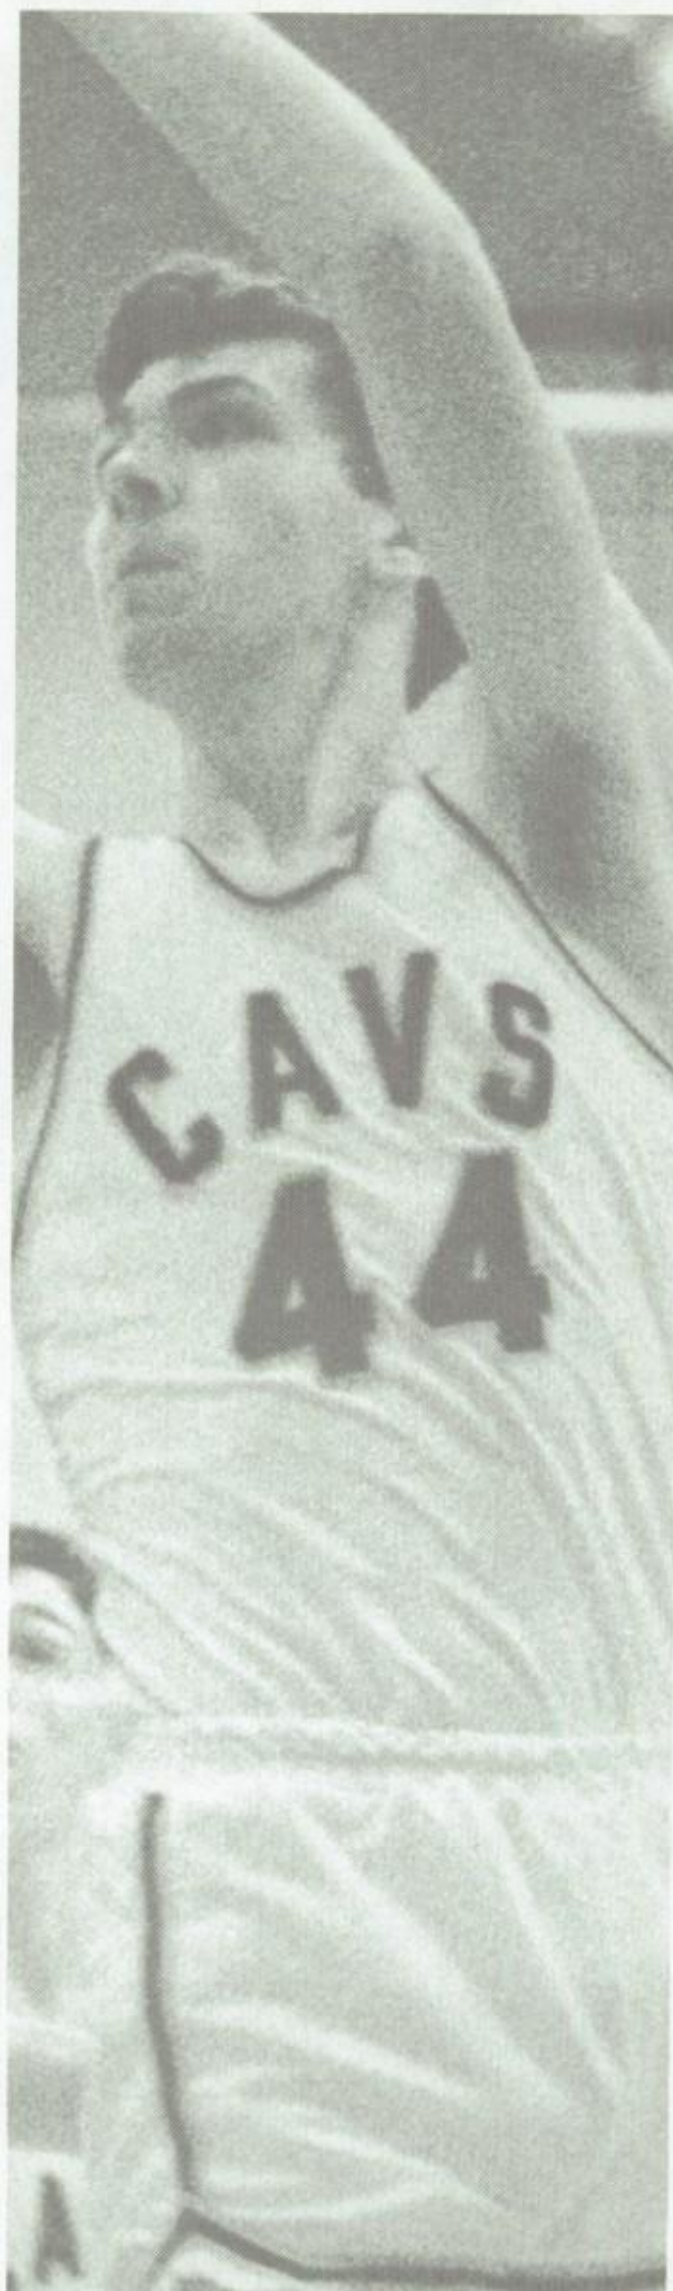

Tom Van Dorn, a team co-captain, led the Cavaliers in three major statistics: 50 team assists, a .446 field goal average, and a .75 free throw accuracy. This is his second year as the team's leading free throw shooter. In team scoring, Tom finished third with a total of 148 points, giving him 7.0 per game. Most fans will remember Tom for his ability to pass the ball to the open player and also his ability to set up plays.

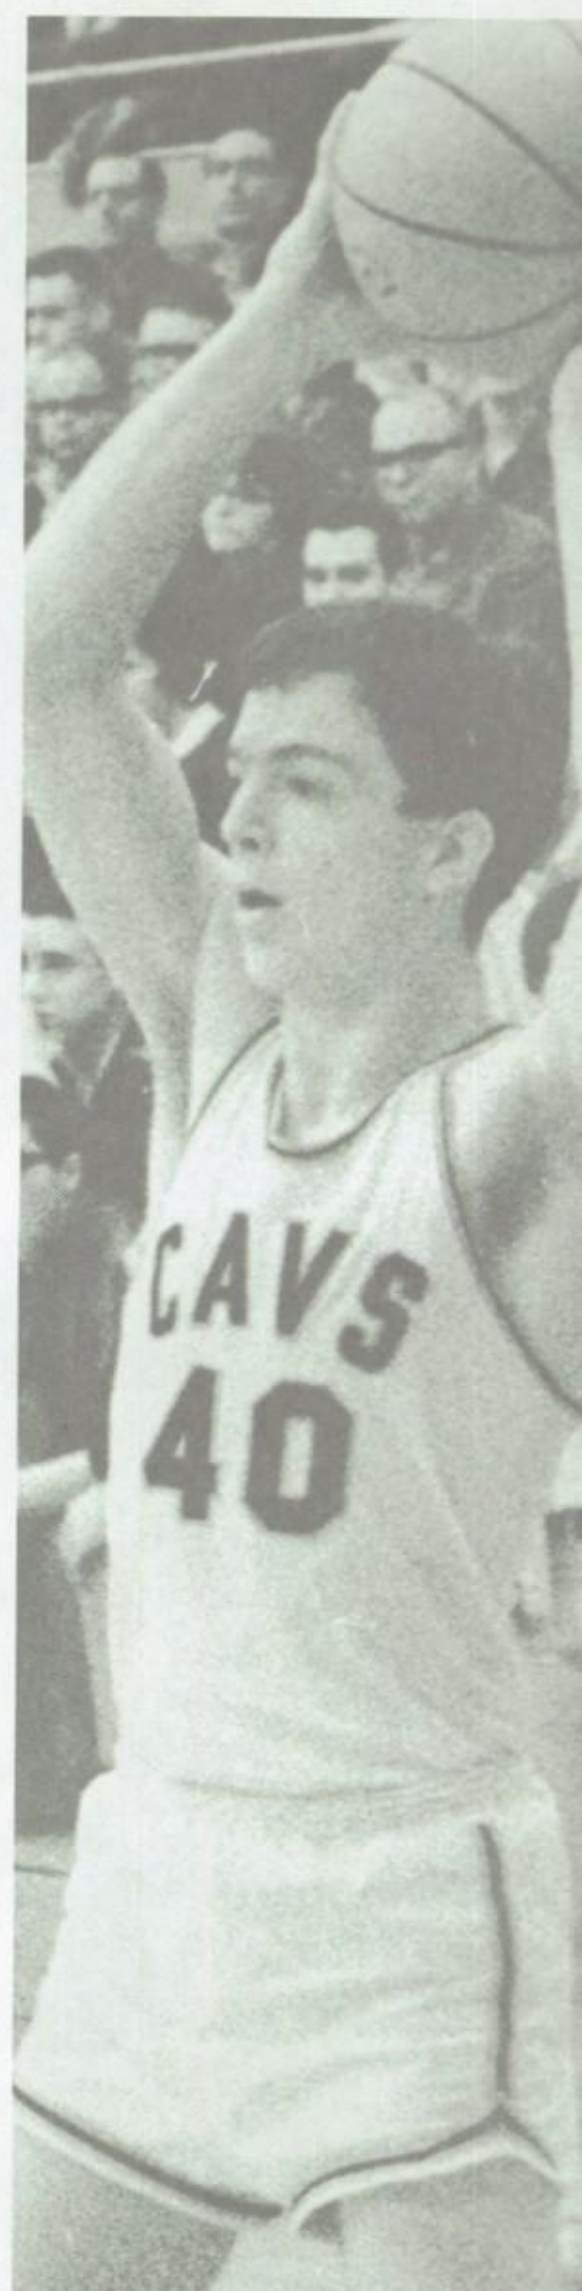

Finishing his career at Clackamas, with a successful personal season, Bob Steenson was a valuable man on both offense and defense. Bob was one of the better defensive players on the team. Scoring 126 points this year with a 5.7 average, Bob was the 4th leading scorer on the team, as well as being 4th in rebounding with 72. One of Bob's bright spots was his free throw shooting, as he finished second with a .695 shooting percentage.

Tony Ness, a 6'5" junior, accumulated a season total of 211 points in ten games to average 10.6. He not only had the second highest game scoring average, he was the second highest rebounder with 189, to average 9.5 per game. Tony's most impressive action took place against Gresham when he scored 27 points and snatched 14 rebounds. With his great ability to get the shot off at the right time, Tony poses a big threat next year.

Dan Lunde, as one of the two starting guards, acquired a very impressive record this year. As the team's third highest rebounder, he pulled off 170 missed shots to average 17.0 per game. His season total of 111 points (11.1 per game) made him the team's 5th highest scorer. One of Dan's best performances occurred in a Central Catholic contest when he shot perfectly from the floor for 10 points and grabbed 11 rebounds.

The 1966-67 Speech Squad participated in 16 tournaments; they placed in the top seven in each tournament that designated standings.

Main tournaments included the Corvallis Invitational, Metro Fall Critique, Dallas Invitational, Pacific University, West Linn NFL Practice, Lake Oswego Invitational, Metro Debate, University of Portland, Linfield College, Metro Spring, District #11, Oregon High School Speech League, Pacific University "Tournament," Jesuit Invitational, and the NFL State Individual Events Tournament.

This year's squad placed 56 times, as compared with 26 times last year, achieving first place in the District #11 Tournament, seventh (out of 78) in the Linfield Tournament, second (out of 37) in the Pacific Tournament, and fourth in the Metro Spring Tournament.

art council

Art council is a school-sponsored club, giving the members an opportunity to further their knowledge of art and at the same time to enrich the culture and esthetics of Clackamas High. The club engages in several field trips throughout the year such as to the Portland Art Museum and to museums in Seattle and Salem.

Some of the duties of Art Council are to approve all posters before they go up; to display student art work in classrooms, in the library, and in the halls, and to help with decorations whenever requested by another club.

future teachers

First Row: Ann Tippetts, Marlene Yamamoto, Nancy Gray, Clarice Tippetts; Second Row: Kathy Harris, Sandy Paist, Fabianne Hertel, Pat Robison.

Future Teachers was formed to help the members learn more about the teaching profession--to help them to decide about their careers.

The club puts on a Teacher's Tea for Teacher Appreciation Week. They have an observation day where the members visit grade schools in the area, sit in classes and observe the teachers and the children. They also visit colleges during the year.

The members assist teachers by correcting papers, arranging bulletin boards, filing, and other odd jobs.

Henrietta Magunda, Clackamas High's exchange student for the past year, comes from Uganda, Africa. She comes from a family of eight. Her father is a farmer of cotton, coffee, corn, bananas, and beans. Her oldest brother is an electronics engineer. Two of her other brothers are priests. Her youngest brother is a junior in high school. She also has a sister who is a housewife.

Henri attended an all-girls' school about two-hundred miles from home. At her school there were thirteen subjects taught a week with eight required subjects a day.

Here at Clackamas Henri was a member of Cavalettes and International Relations. She was also named honorary Girl of the Month for June. She has been living at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arther Clauder who live in Clackamas, Oregon.

national honor society

President: Dennis Zier

The purpose of National Honor Society is to recognize and to promote scholastic achievements of Clackamas High School, as well as to promote service and leadership. Among many of its services, the tutoring program is the most important project.

The club kept itself busy in various activities throughout the school year. It began with the annual candle-light induction ceremony. Then it sponsored the winter homecoming dance. All of the meetings feature interesting guest speakers.

principal

Climaxing his career in the field of education, John Kohl received his Doctor of Education Degree at the University of Oregon this past year. This highlights his list of accomplishments, which include a Master of Arts Degree from State College of Iowa and a Master of Education from the University of Oregon.

An interest in people and places has taken Dr. Kohl throughout most of the United States and parts of Mexico and Canada.

His job experiences include many varied fields: construction, factory work, truck driving, insurance sales, and college teaching. To round out his personality, Dr. Kohl's hobbies are hunting, fishing, reading, and youth work.

board of directors

Seated: Mr. Jess Lamb, Mr. Marvin Law, Mr. Donald Vaughan, Mr. Robert Strasser, Mr. Hans Juhr. Standing: Mr. Fred Paulsen, Mr. Owen Sabin.

assistant principal

A familiar face in a new role best describes Mr. Robert Newton, this year's assistant principal. Since 1960, he had taught sophomore health education and junior-senior health seminar at Clackamas. As assistant principal, he has charge of attendance and discipline. He is also the Student Council advisor.

boys' and girls' deans

Mr. Hogue's experience in the field of education includes a long list of accomplishments associated with Union High District No. 5. He has devoted fifteen years to our service, including two years in guidance and two years as Dean of Boys.

Along with her many duties as Dean of Girls, Mrs. Foldenstill finds time to be active as the advisor for Girls' League and as the chairman of the Guidance Department. Her interest in travel has taken her on many voyages throughout Europe, around the world, and into Alaska and Hawaii.

Me!"
Al, Looks to me as if you will have a very busy night life at C.H.S. this year. Don't do any thing I wouldn't want you to. Maybe we might get together and indulge a bit.
Keep smiling since you look better than ever!
Lots of Blessings
Al

Winston

Cathy

Chris,
 I can't think of nuthin to say but we really had fun in P.E. Huh? Really, Chris, you've been so sweet to me & helped me with all my problems.
 I promise to confide in you next year.
 Have fun & be good.
 Love ya always,
 Sue Anne

The Best of Luck
 But Good Luck

Chris,
 We haven't had any classes since P.E. your Freshman year, but the few times I do get to see you, I really enjoy. You are really a darling girl and I wish you the best of luck in everything you do.
 Love,
 Jane York

Dear Chris,
 I'm sure you got happy that you got to know Luck! Come and see Chadamas and me sometimes!
 Love Always,
 Maici Cantwell 67

Chris, luck next year in school and circus. Stay out of trouble. Love
 "67"
 Giras
 King

Chris
 Glad! met you with a nice & are "D" even really nice see in his class.
 Love ya
 if you are in it, thank you!

Dear Miss
I hope you will be happy and have a good time I am yours
sincerely
Michele

Chris,
Good luck to one of the best girls in circus and one I'm proud to have as a friend, I'm hoping that this year will be even greater than your last.
Michele
